

La Belles Professional Hair Services

High End Hair And Beauty Provider. Delivering Hair And Make Up To Weddings . Proms . Special Events . Special Occasions

At La Belles we pride ourselves on offering a high quality, and tailored service. Taking our product direct to our clients on a mobile basis. Our ethos is to be professional, reliable, and approachable. Most importantly skilled in what we do.

We are currently seeking qualified, professional freelance hair stylists holding skills in bridal and long hair techniques. Also makeup artists who again have experience and skill with application of day wear and evening looks to join our team. Holding a strong portfolio of previous work and projects.

All kit and tools must be stylists own and to professional standards.

HOW TO APPLY:

- Contact us via email or link as advertised
- Provide qualification details, port-folio of work, with your social media links and CV.
- Arrange a date and time for your trade trial whereby you will undertake a creatively dressed hair take up for hair stylists or makeup application for makeup artists.
- If your trial is successful you will be added to our books of specialist artists.
- This is a self employed post, freelancer post. Your employment will be on a contract basis.
- Successful candidates will be prepared to attend marketing events such as wedding fayres, photo shoots, and charity functions to promote the company and in turn themselves.

This is a great opportunity for freelance artists to work in your chosen industry. There is much scope for personal growth and career development within our exiting and creative organisation for those who wish.
